The OHF International Hyperoxaluria Workshop is the largest hyperoxaluria professional and patient event world-wide. This event brings together clinicians, scientists, industry, professionals, families and caregivers to partner, connect, share, and be inspired. The conference has grown to nearly 200 attendees and offers a robust agenda that includes more than 50 sessions and 75 speakers. There are numerous unique opportunities to support hyperoxaluria education, raise awareness, participate as thought leaders, and provide opportunities for patients and professionals to become drivers and architects in the OHF community. The Workshop has emerged as ‘the must-attend’ international hyperoxaluria professional and patient event.
